The launch date is the start date of the portfolio. Returns before the launch date are back tested returns based on the portfolio's strategic asset allocation holdings at the launch date, which would not reflect Kudala Wealth's historic asset allocation views, or any changes, which would have been made to the portfolio holdings over time. For these back tested return calculations, the underlying fund's retail share classes with the longest return histories have been used. For funds with limited return history, the applicable index returns have been used. From the launch date, returns are based on an investment in a tracker or index portfolio, which is a time-weighted return and the effect of cash flows are not taken into account. These returns are after the deduction of the portfolio management fee and either before or after the deduction of any platform administration fees (depending on the linked investment service provider/platform on which the tracker or index portfolio is invested) and before financial adviser fees. Returns for periods exceeding one year are annualised. The return for the Consumer Price Index (CPI) is at the end of the previous month. The portfolio's TIC is an estimated total for the portfolio based on the weighted average of the underlying funds in which the portfolio invests using the latest available data. The underlying funds' total investment charges (TIC) are the sum of a fund's total expense ratio (TER) and the transaction costs (TC). All fees include VAT. The portfolio's asset allocation is based on the weighted average of the underlying funds in which the portfolio invests using the latest available data. The portfolio's asset allocation may differ from time to time due to market movements, changes to the portfolio and the underlying fund data and limitations. The underlying funds may contain exposure to assets that are invested globally, which may present additional risks. Individual investor returns may differ as a result of platform and adviser fees, the actual investment date, cash flows and other transactions.

Kudala Wealth does not provide a guarantee on the value of the portfolio nor does it guarantee the returns of the underlying funds in the portfolio. The investor acknowledges the inherent risk associated with the portfolio (currency, investment, market and credit risks) and that capital is not guaranteed. A switch transaction between underlying funds within the portfolio will incur capital gains tax (CGT) for the investor, should the product through which the investor buys the portfolio not be CGT exempt.
